

Change history
May 2022	Reduced max. word count for abstracts from 250 to 150

elni Review – Guideline for authors

Length of contribution

Articles: Usually 2000 to 5000 words (including footnotes)

Recent developments: Book reviews, conferences, short news etc.: Usually 300 to 1500 words

Articles have to be structured as follows:

- comprise an abstract (max. 150 words)
- give a short introduction into the issue
- be divided into chapters
- draw conclusions
- include references / bibliography at the end

Language

Contributions must be submitted in English language.

Copyright

Please indicate in a footnote if the article has already been accepted by / printed in another journal.

Edition contributions

The Editors deserve the right to alter the text of a contribution in order to make it conform with the elni Review layout. If an article is too long, the author will be requested to shorten accordingly. If editing is necessary, the author will be asked for approval and to confirm the revised version.

Citation

- literal quotations in inverted commas
- short references as footnote
- full references in the bibliography at the end
- Short and full references must always end with a full stop.

Short references

- last name of the author, year, page (p. / pp.):
 - o Brugge, 2021, p. 4.
 - o Brugge and Coals, 2021, p. 4.
 - o Brugge et al., 2021, pp. 4-12. (if more than two authors)
- Judgement: Court, year, X v Y, number of the case. ECLI.
 - o CJEU, 1989, Fratelli Costanzo SpA v Comune di Milano, Case 103/88, ECLI:EU:C:1989:256, para 27.
- Websites or links: author/company/name of the website, year.
 - o ECHA, 2020.

Always indicate a short reference, don't use supra note or similar.

Full references (in the bibliography)

- Books:
Comte, Françoise and Krämer, Ludwig. (2004). Environmental Crime in Europe: Rules of Sanctions. Groningen: Europa Law Pub.
- Contributions to edited books:
Peeters, Marjan. (2018). Environmental principles in international climate change law. In: Krämer, Ludwig and Orlando, Emanuela (eds.) Principles of Environmental Law. Cheltenham, UK: Edward Elgar Publishing.
- Journal Articles:
Ashford, Nicholas A. (2005): Implementing the Precautionary Principle: Incorporating Science, Technology, Fairness, and Accountability in Environmental, Health and Safety Decisions, International Journal of Risk Assessment and Management 17(1), 59-67. DOI: <https://doi.org/10.1504/ijram.2005.007163>.
- Websites or links:
Try to describe the website as detailed as possible: ECHA (2020). Candidate List of substances of very high concern for Authorisation (published in accordance with Article 59(10) of the REACH Regulation). Accessible under <https://echa.europa.eu/de/candidate-list-table> (last access 12 April 2021).

For more information, please contact info@elni.org.

The Editors